International Organization of Physical Therapists in Women's Health

CONSTITUTION

1. Name
The name of the Organization shall be the International Organization of Physical Therapists in Women's Health hereafter referred to as the Organization.
2. Definition/Structure
Preamble
  - 2.1 The Organization is a non-governmental affiliation of physical therapists and their member countries who share an interest in promoting the health of women worldwide.
  - 2.2 The Organization is a recognized sub-group of the World Confederation for Physical Therapy.
  - 2.3 The Organization Members hereafter called the Members are the recognized sub-sections of the parent Physical Therapy Associations recognized by the World Confederation for Physical Therapy.
  - 2.4 The Organization shall be composed of six or more Members who are recognized women's health (or Ob/Gyn) sub-sections of their respective WCPT Member Organizations and collectively are from two or more WCPT Regions. Members of the women's health sub-section of the National Member Organization, shall also be members of the National Member Organization.
3. Objectives
Objectives of the Organization shall not be in conflict with the Articles of Association of WCPT.

The objectives of the Organization are:

- 3.1 To advance practice by communication, exchange of information, and collaboration between physical therapists practicing in women's health throughout the world.
- 3.2 To encourage improved standards of practice in women's health physical therapy.
- 3.3 To be an advocate and resource for the practice of women's health physical therapy.
- 3.4 To encourage and publicize high-quality research in women's health physical therapy.
- 3.5 To foster the development of women's health physical therapy throughout the world.

4. Membership

The Organization's membership shall be composed of recognized Women's Health (or ob/gyn) sub-sections of parent National Physical Therapy organizations which are WCPT Member Organizations in good standing. These members shall be represented in the IOPTWH by a representative elected from within the Women's Health (or ob/gyn) sub-section and approved by the National Parent Body.

4.1 Full Member

A Women's Health sub-section from each WCPT Member Organization may be admitted to membership, provided it meets the requirements laid down in Article 15 of the WCPT Articles of Association, and is approved by the IOPTWH's Executive Committee.

4.2 Member Elect

A sub-section, as the principal organization representing women's health may, while awaiting confirmation of Member status at a General Meeting, become a Member Elect for the period between approval by the Executive Committee and confirmation of Membership at the next General Meeting. Full membership shall be granted if approved by a two thirds majority of the voting delegates at a General Meeting.

4.3 Associate Member

A WCPT Member Organization which has not as yet a Women's Health (or ob/gyn) sub-section in place, but wishes to achieve full membership in the future, or is too small to ever have a recognized sub-section.

4.4 Special Member

Special Membership may be conferred by a two-thirds (2/3) assent of the voting delegates at a General Meeting. Special membership is an honorary category and is reserved for individuals rendering valuable service to the practice of Women's Health internationally.

Member Elect, Associate and Special Members shall not have the right to vote, or hold office.

4.5 Application for Membership

The Executive Committee shall regulate the procedure for membership applications.

4.6 Granting of Membership

The Executive Committee shall assess all applications for membership and make recommendations to the voting delegates at the next General Meeting. Membership shall be granted if approved by a two-thirds majority.

4.7 Termination and Reinstatement of Membership

4.7.1 Termination of Membership

A Member may terminate its membership by giving six months previous notice in writing to the Executive Committee and by paying all outstanding subscriptions.

4.7.2 The Executive Committee may terminate membership on default in payment of subscriptions. Membership ceases if the current year subscription is not paid by December 31st or if the actions or policy of a member is detrimental to the best interest of the Organization or is likely to bring the Organization into disrepute. Liabilities to the Organization are not canceled. If all subscriptions in arrears are paid by June 30th in the succeeding year then the Member, if eligible, may be restored to membership without re-application. In exceptional circumstances the Executive Committee shall have the power to postpone, waive or suspend the subscription required.

4.7.3 Reinstatement to Membership

An organization which has been excluded from membership under Article 4.7.2 for default in payment of subscription, may apply to the Executive Committee for reinstatement provided that no more than two years have elapsed since the termination of its membership; and provided that it is still eligible and the appropriate annual subscriptions for the intervening period are paid in full, the Executive Committee shall decide if the organization may be reinstated as a member of the Organization. If more than two years elapse, the country needs to reapply for membership in the Organization.

5. Duties of Members

- 5.1 Members shall comply with the Organization Constitution which shall not conflict with the WCPT Articles of Association.
- 5.2 Members shall pay the subscriptions in accordance with Article 11.
- 5.3 Members should send a voting delegate to at least one out of two consecutive General Meetings.
- 5.4 Members shall keep the Executive Committee informed of any events or developments in their countries of interest to the Organization.
- 5.5 Members shall do all in their power to promote the objectives and work of the Organization.
- 5.6 Members shall be in good standing as determined by their National Association.

6. Rights of Members

- 6.1 Members shall participate in the affairs of the Organization in accordance with the constitution.
- 6.2 Members shall participate in policy development by making suggestions to the Executive Committee and the General Meeting.
- 6.3 Members may request technical support and assistance in their efforts to improve the situation of physical therapists practicing in women's health in their countries.

- 6.4 Members of the Organization shall vote in electing a delegate to the WCPT General Meeting who has the right to speak but not to make or second motions, or to vote.
- 6.5 Members may vote on all Organization matters raised at the General Meeting, including the General Election.

7. Executive Board/Officers

The governing body of the Organization shall be composed of physical therapists only.

- 7.1 The elected members of the Executive Committee of the Organization will be President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and one At-Large member. At least two WCPT Regions shall be represented.
- 7.2 Elections for all positions may be held at any General Meeting. The candidate must be endorsed by the respective National Women's Health sub-section of their National Member Organization.
- 7.3 The term of office for the elected members of the Executive Committee will be a four year period from one General Meeting to the next. The candidates will be eligible for re-election for one further term.
- 7.4 To facilitate communication, the President and Secretary may be from the same country, but there shall not be more than two Executive Committee members from any one Member country.
- 7.5 The President shall have served on the Executive Committee of the IOPTWH or have represented a Member Country to the Organization at some time during the eight years immediately prior to election. The first President, excepted.
- 7.6 The Executive Committee shall regulate its own procedures.
