

John Xerri de Caro

Candidate for President World Physiotherapy

My engagement in international affairs related to physiotherapy started in 1999 as a Voting Delegate at the WCPT General Meeting in Yokohama, Japan. Since 2015 I was elected for consecutive terms to the Executive Board of World Physiotherapy. My experience and skills have driven me to accepting the nomination for this prestigious position motivated by my unwavering passion for the physiotherapy profession, and to do so with determination, and guided by my values.
