

World & National PT Day

On September 6, the Pasig City Children's Hospital Department of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation chose to collaborate with Misfit Strength Gym in honor of World and National Physical Therapy Day.

A fun-filled educational session of HIIT/Coordination Exercises (Sound Mind, Healthy Body) gave physical therapists a quick and efficient way to improve their own selves and their patients' cardiovascular fitness.